2. Andrx previously provided to the FTC staff, as part of non-public investigation(s), documents in its possession, custody, or control that, in part, are potentially relevant to the allegations of the Complaint, to the proposed relief, or to the defenses of the respondent to the pleadings. Subject to an appropriate protective order governing confidentiality, Andrx is agreeable to having Complaint Counsel use as appropriate the portion of those documents relevant to this proceeding. In agreeing to that, Andrx is not agreeing to the authenticity, admissibility or relevance of any particular documents, nor waiving any rights or interests with respect to confidentiality.

3. These responses are qualified because Andrx expects to adduce additional facts through additional discovery. Accordingly, Andrx expressly reserves the right to make use of any other information for purposes of this proceeding and, as appropriate and solely to the extent required, to amend, modify or supplement these responses.
