ORDER GRANTING UNOPPOSED MOTION OF NON-PARTY MICROSOFT CORPORATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MOVE TO LIMIT OR QUASH SUBPOENAS DUCES TECUM

On May 14, 2010, non-party Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft") submitted an Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time to Move to Limit or Quash: (1) a Subpoena Duces Tecum received from Respondent Intel Corporation on March 22, 2010; and (2) Subpoenas Duces Tecum received from Complaint Counsel on April 7 and April 26, 2010 (collectively, "Subpoenas").[1]

Microsoft states that the parties are negotiating the scope of the Subpoenas. Microsoft further states that although the parties have made significant progress in negotiations, and that Microsoft is producing responsive documents and information, an additional extension of time is required to complete negotiations and to provide additional information responsive to the Subpoenas. Microsoft requests an extension until June 4, 2010 and further requests that Microsoft's obligations to otherwise respond to the Subpoenas be tolled during the period of extension. Microsoft states that Complaint Counsel and Intel's counsel have agreed to the proposed extension.

Based on the foregoing, Microsoft's Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time to Move to Limit or Quash Subpoenas Duces Tecum is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that Microsoft shall have until June 4, 2010 to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoenas, and that Microsoft's obligations to otherwise respond to the Subpoenas shall be tolled during the period of the extension.

ORDERED:

D. Michael Chappell
Chief Administrative Law Judge

Date: May 17, 2010
