MONETARY JUDGMENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the Commission, and against Stipulating Defendants, jointly and severally, for equitable monetary relief in the amount of twelve million, nine hundred eighty-eight thousand, six hundred three dollars ($12,988,603), provided, however, that the Judgment for equitable monetary relief shall be suspended as to Stipulating Defendants upon the satisfaction of the obligations imposed by Subsection B of this Section, and subject to the conditions set forth in Section VIII of this Order;

B. Stipulating Defendants shall pay to the Commission the sum of one million six hundred thousand dollars ($1,600,000) in equitable monetary relief within five (5) days of the date of entry of this Order. Payment shall be made to the Commission by wire transfer in accordance with directions provided by the Commission, or by certified check or other guaranteed funds payable to and delivered to the Commission.

C. Time is of the essence for the payment specified above. In the event of any default by Stipulating Defendants on any obligation imposed under this Section, including, but not limited to, the failure timely and completely to fulfill their payment and other obligations:

1. The judgment imposed herein will not be suspended, and the full amount of that judgment ($12,988,603) shall immediately become due and payable, plus interest from the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, less any amounts already paid; and

2. The Commission shall be entitled to exercise immediately any and all rights and remedies against Stipulating Defendants and their assets to collect the full amount of the judgment and interest thereon, less any amounts already paid;

D. All funds paid pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief. Stipulating Defendants shall cooperate fully to assist the Commission in identifying consumers who may be entitled to redress pursuant to this Order. If the Commission determines, in its sole discretion, that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Stipulating Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Part.

Stipulating Defendants shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. This judgment for equitable monetary relief is solely remedial in nature and is not a fine, penalty, punitive assessment, or forfeiture;

E. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, as amended, Stipulating Defendants are hereby required, unless they already have done so, to furnish to the Commission their taxpayer identifying numbers (social security numbers or employer identification numbers), which shall be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of Stipulating Defendants' relationship with the government. Stipulating Defendant Mario Milanovic is further required, unless he already has done so, to provide the Commission with clear, legible and full-size photocopies of all valid driver's licenses that he possesses, which will be used for reporting and compliance purposes;

F. Stipulating Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law. Stipulating Defendants shall make no claim to or demand for return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise;

G. Stipulating Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Stipulating Defendants further stipulate and agree that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to

Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes; and

H. Proceedings instituted under this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

VIII. RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. The Commission's agreement to, and the Court's approval of, this Order, including but not limited to, the partial suspension of the monetary judgment against Stipulating Defendants, is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Stipulating Defendants' representations regarding their financial condition, as set forth in the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Mario Milanovic signed by Mario Milanovic on September 10, 2012, and the attachments thereto, and the Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant Beony International LLC signed by Mario Milanovic on September 10, 2012, and the attachments thereto, all of which contain material information upon which Plaintiff relied in negotiating and agreeing to the terms of this Order;

B. If, upon motion of the FTC, the Court finds that Stipulating Defendants failed to disclose any material asset, materially misrepresented the value of any asset, or made any other material misrepresentation in or omission from Stipulating Defendants' financial statements or supporting documents, the Court will lift the suspension of the judgment against Stipulating Defendants, in favor of the Commission, and the entire judgment, less any amount previously paid, shall become immediately due and payable. Provided, however, that, in all other respects, this Order shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and

C. Any proceedings instituted under this Section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including, but not limited to, contempt proceedings, or any other proceedings that the Commission or the United States might initiate to enforce this Order. For purposes of this Section, Stipulating Defendants waive any right to contest any of the allegations in the Commission's Complaint.

IX.

COOPERATION WITH FTC COUNSEL

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Stipulating Defendants shall, in connection with this action or any subsequent investigations related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the FTC's Complaint, cooperate in good faith with the FTC and appear, or cause their officers, employees, representatives, or agents to appear, at such places and times as the FTC shall reasonably request, after written notice, for interviews, conferences, pretrial discovery, review of documents, and for such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the FTC. If requested in writing by the FTC, Stipulating Defendants shall appear, or cause their officers, employees, representatives, or agents to appear, and provide truthful testimony in any trial, deposition, or other proceeding related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the Complaint, without the service of a subpoena.
