- A. Entering into, maintaining, or enforcing an agreement, contract, understanding, term, condition, or policy that imposes upon a Customer or commits a Customer to a Majority Share Requirement for a Primary Product or Primary Product Grouping, including by:

1. Conditioning sale of a Primary Product on a Majority Share Requirement for such Primary Product;
2. Conditioning a Price Advantage or Non-Price Advantage for a Primary Product on a Majority Share Requirement for such Primary Product;
3. Conditioning a flat or lump sum payment of monies (or any other item of pecuniary value) on the Customer implementing a Majority Share Requirement for a Primary Product or Primary Product Grouping; or
4. Providing a Retroactive Advantage for a Customer's Purchases of a Primary Product,

Provided, and for the avoidance of doubt, the fact that a Customer Purchases from Respondent more than 50% of the Customer's Requirements for a Primary Product or Primary Product Grouping Worldwide or for use in Customer Devices for end users in the United States does not, without more, establish a violation of this Paragraph II.A.,

Provided, further, and for the avoidance of doubt, the fact that a Customer classifies or refers to Respondent as an "authorized" or "preferred" provider (or a similar term), where such classification or reference does not impose upon the Customer or commit the Customer to a Majority Share Requirement for a Primary Product or Primary Product Grouping, does not, without more, establish a violation of this Paragraph II.A.,

Provided, further, and for the avoidance of doubt, tiered, volume-based discounts or rebates that are not Retroactive Advantages, are not, without more, prohibited by this Paragraph II.A.,

Provided, further, it is not a violation of this Paragraph II.A. for Respondent to achieve, continue, maintain, or enter into a Majority Share Requirement in a bid as part of a single tender process (that is, a single request for proposal, request for quotation, or similar solicitation) so long as (i) the Majority Share Requirement applies only to a Primary Product or Primary Product Grouping for use in a single Customer Device Model or a single Customer Device Model and Derivatives thereof, (ii) Respondent does not bid for more business than a Customer has asked Respondent to bid for within the tender process, and (iii) Respondent does not seek to impose a Majority Share Requirement on a larger volume of Primary Products or Primary Product Groupings than the Customer seeks to award to Respondent within the tender process,

Provided, further, it is not a violation of this Paragraph II.A. for Respondent and a Customer to agree to a Majority Share Requirement for a model of a Primary Product ("the EOL model") so long as (i) Respondent's ordinary-course roadmaps and planning documents reflect that the model is reaching the end of its ordinary-course lifecycle and that Respondent plans to discontinue the EOL model in the ordinary course; (ii) Respondent has sent written notice to Customers who use the EOL model informing them that the EOL model is reaching the end of its ordinary-course lifecycle and stating the date on which Respondent plans to discontinue the model ("discontinuation date"); (iii) the Customer requests that Respondent continue producing the model after the discontinuation date; and (iv) the Majority Share Requirement that Respondent and the Customer agree to (a) begins on or after the discontinuation date, (b) is limited to the EOL model, and (c) is no broader than reasonably necessary to justify Respondent producing the EOL model after the discontinuation date for the period that the Customer requests that Respondent continue to produce the EOL model, and Finally, for the avoidance of doubt, Paragraph II.A. does not prohibit Respondent from seeking to sell to a Customer a volume of Products that in total amounts to more than 50% of the Customer's Requirements for a Primary Product or a Primary Product Grouping so long as the Respondent seeks to sell the relevant Products in a manner that does not violate this Paragraph II.A.

B. Engaging in the following with respect to a Customer:

1. Conditioning the sale of a Primary Product, or any Price Advantage or Non-Price Advantage for a Primary Product, on a Majority Share Requirement for a different Primary Product, a Secondary Product, a Primary Product Grouping or a Secondary Product Grouping; or
2. Breaching or threatening to breach a Past Award For Streaming SOCs for the purpose, in whole or in meaningful part, of inducing or coercing the Customer to enter into a new Majority Share Requirement for any SOCs for Streaming Set Top Boxes, including breaching or threatening to breach Product Support Terms of a Past Award For Streaming SOCs.

C. Engaging in the following with respect to a Customer:

1. Threatening to, or taking any action to:
 - a. terminate, suspend, or delay the sale or delivery of a Primary Product, or
 - b. withdraw or modify a Price Advantage or Non-Price Advantage for a Primary Product;
2. Offering or providing less favorable Price Advantages or Non-Price Advantages for a Primary Product than Respondent would have otherwise proposed or provided; or
3. Refusing to deal or threatening to refuse to deal with the Customer on terms and conditions generally available to other Customers for a Primary Product; for the reason, in whole or meaningful part, that (i) the Customer does not agree to a Majority Share Requirement that violates this Order, (ii) the Customer does not acquiesce in Respondent achieving, continuing, or maintaining a Majority Share Requirement that violates this Order; or (iii) Respondent seeks to retaliate against the Customer because the Customer has engaged in, or considered engaging in, the research, design, development, testing, manufacture, production, distribution, Purchase, marketing, promotion, or sale of any Customer Device that uses a Product that is or will be manufactured or supplied by a Competitor (collectively "Prohibited Reasons");

For the avoidance of doubt, it is not a violation of this Paragraph II.C. for Respondent to take an action, including one of the following actions, if taken for independent, verifiable business reasons unrelated to one or more Prohibited Reasons:

- a. enforcing the terms of an agreement with a Customer that do not otherwise violate this order, for example, terms requiring prompt payment;
- b. offering a Customer terms and conditions that Respondent offers to other, similarly situated Customers (or offering a Customer terms and conditions different from those that Respondent offers to other Customers that are not similarly situated to the Customer);
- c. implementing or offering a volume-based discount or rebate that is not a Retroactive Advantage; or
- d. making product allocations among Customers when Respondent does not have the practical ability to supply a Product to all Customers in the quantities and on the timeframes they have requested.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, it shall not be a violation of this Order for Respondent to enforce a Majority Share Requirement in a Legacy Service Provider Contract until the earlier of termination of the contract or February 28, 2022, if:

1. Within 5 days of issuance of this Order, Respondent notifies each Customer with a Legacy Service Provider Contract of the Customer's right to terminate its Legacy Service Provider Contract, without penalty or charge under the terms of such contract, by providing a copy of this Order and Exhibit C to such Customer; and
2. The Customer does not terminate such Legacy Service Provider Contract by providing Respondent with 10 days' written notice of the intent to terminate the contract. The right to terminate shall expire 60 days after the date on which Respondent provides the notice pursuant to Paragraph II.D.1. above.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Respondent shall design, maintain, and operate an antitrust compliance program to ensure compliance with this Order and the Antitrust Laws, and as part of such program shall:

B. Respondent shall:

1. Deliver a letter in the form of Exhibit A and a copy of this Order to each Customer that has a current contract for a Product with Respondent within 10 days of the date this Order is issued (except for Customers with a Legacy Service Provider Contract to whom Respondent has provided notice pursuant to Paragraph II.D. of this Order);
2. Deliver a letter in the form of Exhibit B to each OEM that bids to supply or supplies Customer Devices to a U.S. Service Provider and each U.S. Service Provider, to whom Respondent did not deliver either a letter pursuant to Paragraph III.B.1. or notice pursuant to Paragraph II.D. of this Order, no later than 10 days after the Customer completes Respondent's onboarding process that, inter alia, validates that the Customer is authorized to purchase Products from Respondent; and
3. Permit any Customer to whom Respondent is required to provide a letter under Paragraph III.B.2. and who wishes to terminate an agreement with Broadcom because the Customer believes it violates this Order, to terminate such agreement via written notice and without penalty or charge, if the Customer delivers the written notice no later than 60 days after Broadcom delivers to the Customer the letter required under Paragraph III.B.2.
